

Narbonne Graduation Set Friday

Graduation exercises for Narbonne high school seniors will be held Friday, February 1, at 8 p.m., in the school auditorium.

Herbert E. Morey, principal, will present diplomas to 67 graduates. Speaker will be Mrs. Mildred E. Younger, civic leader, radio and TV personality.

Graduating seniors of the junior high school held their ceremonies Wednesday, with Morey presenting diplomas to 114 graduates.

Meanwhile, Hospital Campaign headquarters announced that Mother M. Genevieve, Provincial of the Little Company of Mary and its highest ranking officer in the United States and Mother M. Patricia, a member of the Order's hospital council, will spend this week in Torrance for discussion with campaign leaders, area doctors, architects for the new hospital and industry leaders.

The Sisters arrived Friday from Chicago, US headquarters of the Order and plan to remain here until today when they will attend a breakfast meeting with the combined executive and industry committees for the campaign.

Banquet ...

They remained undiscovered for nearly two hours. A passerby found the bodies and notified police. Both youths were pronounced dead on arrival at Park Emergency hospital in Gardena.

Investigating the case, officers found a car mired in a nearby field and traced ownership to Gray. Gray allegedly told officers that he knew he hit something which caused his car to go out of control and into the field. Gray, it was reported, went back to look but couldn't see anything.

He said he went home to get his uncle but that they were unable to get his car out of the mud. He then returned home and went to bed, according to CHP.
